

Use of first person is prohibited in precis.

Indent the paragraph.

Boundary

Precis 2016

A visit to Qualla Boundary

Last May, we took a flight to Cherokee and visited the town called Qualla Boundary which had beautiful landscape. This town offered an insight <sup>Despite</sup> into the historic past of Cherokee. <sup>souvenir</sup> <sup>with</sup> language barrier, they found a shop which was filled cultural artifacts. ~~Initially they were surprised by the fluent English of shopkeeper named George.~~ They went to a cafe with George for lunch. He told them that survival of Cherokees depend on means other than trade such as "Bingo Weekend" which earned them great profit. They visited an art <sup>museum</sup> ~~meuseum~~ as their <sup>final</sup> stop where <sup>displayed</sup> ~~dispaye~~ different artifacts were displaye. Once back, they missed this place.

Spelling errors found. Avoid irrelevant details in precis.