~~The Evils and ways of Extermination of war that~~

The writer has narrated war

~~is a cause of collapse of~~ Civilizations. He believes that when war becomes unbearable

~~then one cannot get rid~~ of it. Initially, its destruction

~~might seem to be more than~~

~~its benefits, so states fought~~

~~keeping an option of exemption~~

~~for loser. When warring Society~~

~~progresses politically and economi-~~

~~cally then it uses resources~~

~~in military power. However,~~

~~war proves to be cancer~~

~~destroying healthy tissues. In~~ ~~such situations in history when~~

~~war has threatened civilization,~~

~~states have tried to abandon~~

~~it. So this gave two options~~

~~individual-oriented and~~ ~~state-oriented. In former~~ ~~individuals refuse to take~~ sentence makes no sense

for Society

part in war and in latter government of state takes stance against war and its causes. The writer believes ^{that} the Second option, until now, seems more fruitful.
