

Introduction.

Honesty is the best Policy.

Honesty means telling the truth, keeping Promises and not cheating or lying. An honest person admits their mistakes and does not hide the truth even when it is hard. Honesty is not just about words, it also includes reliable actions. Being honest means being fair and responsible in behavior. Truthfulness is important because it builds trust. People always trust on an reliable person and strong relationship grow in family, friendship, bussiness and government sectors. Credible people^{are} always respected and remembered in good words. Dishonesty, on the other hand, can destroy relationships and reputations. Also truthfulness gives inner peace. A person who tells the truth does not need to worry about being caught in a lie. People can practice the honesty by always speaking the truth, even when it is difficult. Always admit mistake and say sorry when needed. People must not lie to avoid trouble or to impress others. In School, Students should avoid cheating. At work, people should do their jobs sincerely without hiding information. Thomas Jefferson said that Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom.
