Perilous hour.

The on going tussle between Pakistan and India is the 5th conflict in 25 years.

The Indian occupied Kashmir's district phalgam faced a terrorist attack, targeting tourists. India claims, the terrorist attack was carried ^{out} by Pakistan without providing any shred of evidence.

According to report, provided by ~~Pakistan~~ Pakistan intelligence agency India is preparing for attack while at the same time started testing its missiles urging Pakistan to increase its capabilities. The government of Pakistan ~~reported~~ said that any kinetic action from India side will be met ~~a~~ by a more coercive ~~and~~ reaction. Pakistan also told the international community to play its part in de-escalating the tension ~~and~~ along with the warning that Pakistan will retaliate in response to any indian action.

Maoao Robio made a call to PM Shehbaz Shazif and foreign minister Jaishankar to ease the tension. On the other hand Saudi Arabia, Iran and Turkiye prompted a de-escalation between the two neighbouring nuclear states. Any inadvertent action by any side can bring a two nuclear states to the verge of mutually assured destruction. Therefore, it is evident from the history that adversaries can be deminish by establishing bilateral talks between the dissidents. However the international community especially the US should urge the India to halt using water as a weapon. Similarly, US should help to establish the direct communication between the two warring states.
