

WATER CRISIS IN PAKISTAN: A SHARED

RESPONSIBILITY OF GOVERNMENT AND THE PEOPLE

1- INTRODUCTION:

Thesis Statement: The government and people of Pakistan must acknowledge and fulfill their responsibilities in order to deal with the issue of water crisis.

2- Pakistan as a water scarcity country

3- Collective action of government and citizens is required to face the crisis

4- Role and Responsibility of Government:

- a- Ensure proper policy and planning
- b- Step forward to Infrastructure development required for water conservation.
- c- Efficiently allocate and distribute water resources.
- d- Addressing Climate change impact on water conservation and management
- e- Investing in public awareness and education regarding water crisis and management.

Date _____

5- Role and Responsibility of Citizens:

- a- adhering to water conservative practices
- b- playing role and accountability of water management authorities and advocating for water conservation
- c- Supporting and promoting government initiatives and programs addressing water crisis
- d- Use working for efficient agricultural water use methodologies
- e- Promoting community lead initiatives
- f- Spreading awareness regarding water crisis in society and younger generations

6- Challenges towards the fulfillment of this shared responsibility

7- Way forward: overcoming the challenges

8- Conclusion: