

* Precis 2016

1 word = 1/6. Topic :- "A visit to Cherokee"

During the last vacations, the author wanted to visit some crowd-less place to enjoy. Fortunately, his friend suggested him the place of Cherokee in Oklahoma. Its town "Qualla Boundary" presented its brief yet beautiful image. Ocunulufee Indian village presented 18th century lifestyles. Moreover the historical peagant 'unto these hills' was also frequently played ^{there}. Despite the language differences, ~~we~~ ^{the author} managed to survive there. The fluent english of one of the shopkeepers greatly facilitated. During the ^{off-}tour seasons, the natives ^{there} have to rely on the other sources of income, except trade also, to meet the needs. At last, The author also visited the museum of Cherokee cosmology. After his return, he really mined the tour.

[CS 2018]

Topic:- Tropical vs temperate zones and man's energy:-
The temperate zones of northern Europe are much beneficial for man's active training. The hot weather makes the person ^{less} motivated for exertion and struggle. Also, the cold weather leaves the person numb. But, the moderate cold enables the person to engage in achievable struggles with a ^{strong} motivation. The person just has to wear thick clothes, to arrange for the wood for his fires, and to procure food for his energy demands. On the comparison, ⁱⁿ the tropical regions, situation is different. A person has to survive ^{without} struggles to achieve anything. Similar is the case in the author's country's climate seasons variety and the behavior of people according to seasonal shifts.

Words: 116