which lead to death of 26 tourists. But in reality, that was a propaganda against Pakistan to damage its dignity. In response, the Indians did a coward attack by missiles on Pakistan on 7th May-2025. In this attack, many civilians and childrens were dead. The operation which Indians did was named as "Operation Sindhoor." This was against the law and policy. As the situation was getting out of control, Pakistan decided to attack on India on 9th May 2025 on military bases not civilians. To retaliate, the operation named as "Banyan Marsus" which was the successful operation and lead towards the victory of Pakistan. The ceasefire due to international countries consultation occurs on 10th, May 2025. But the problems is not resolved yet. It was a political propaganda to create new issues for pakistani like "Indus water treaty" which is still unresolved and creating tensions b/w both countries. The treaty was signed by both countries in 19th september 1960 which is the right of both countries but nowadays it is a big issue between india and pakistan. while terrorism is not a good thing as it causes a lot of damage specially to civilians. it causes political instability, economic disruption, poverty and inequality.

"Terrorism is a significant threat to peace and security, prosperity and people."
