Title: Manto: a Blunt Realist

Indent the paragraph.

Owing to his ~~Hypocrisy~~, Manto was socially ambivalent. Critics called him vulgar and legally questioned his moral values. ~~Standing~~ Opposing the conservatives of his time, Manto revealed society's harsh realities. If seen from the Freudian lense, Manto bluntly exposed mysteries of sex out of his concern for socially dejected people. He saw man as mixture of good ~~and~~ evil. Without pretence of ~~virtuosity~~ ^{virtuosity}, he explained the sociomoral problems of his time. As ~~realist~~, duplicity annoyed him. As ~~artist~~. He carefully mirrored vulgarity and restlessness of his time.
