

KP DMS Zarava
BRICS and of Pakistan: Prospects of Recovery.

~~Brainstorming~~

Prospects of recovery

- Alleviating dependence on western Countries
- Facilitating trade relations.
- Addressing debt burden.
- Boosting agricultural development.
- Facilitating Sustainable development.

- Opposition from Indian Side.
- Pakistan's bad economic profile.
- Bad labelling of Pakistan

Outline

1- Introduction

- 1.1. Hook
- 1.2. General thoughts
- 1.3. Thesis Statement.

2- BRICS and Pakistan: Prospects of Recovery

- 2.1. Alleviating dependence on western Countries.
 - 2.1.1. Moving away from traditional block Politics.

- 1.1.2. ~~Decreasing dependence~~ on western monetary system / organizations.
- 1.1.3. Finding new markets in global South.

2.2. Facilitating trade relations with developing States.

2.2.1. BRICS: Alternative to the European Union.

2.2.2. Facilitating trade with BRICS + members.

2.2.3. Maximizing the benefits of CPEC by joining BRICS.

2.2.3. Signing bilateral trade agreements.

2.3. ~~Decreasing debt burden.~~

2.3.1. Utilizing New Development Bank (NDB) for easy loans.

2.3.2. Financing investments opportunities with BRICS + members.

2.3.3. Promoting economic cooperation.

2.4. Boosting agricultural development.

2.4.1. Regional cooperation for agricultural development.

2.4.2. Technology transfer to boost agricultural productivity.

2.4.3. New export market for agricultural products.

3. Challenges faced by Pauliitan
2.5. Focus of the C.I. market change issue
2.5.1. Mitigating human development issues
2.5.2. Improving governance
2.5.3. Quite relevant and improved

3.1. Opposition of India
3.1.1. India's views to make some Pauliitan
3.1.2. Economic liberalization of India
3.1.3. Joint BRICS
3.1.4. Opposition of India
3.2. Pauliitan's role in economic problems
3.2.1. Debt burden of Pauliitan
3.2.2. Quo-Pauliitan's admission
3.2.3. Low exchange rate of Pauliitan
3.3. Bad belly of Pauliitan
3.3.1. Some sub-advice
3.3.2. Tag off Pauliitan
3.3.3. Write more formal words please

4. Conclusion