

Patriotism and nationalism are two sides of the same coin

Try to convey your ideas in a well coherent manner

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. How patriotism and nationalism are not two sides of the same coin

2.1. Patriotism encourages unity, while nationalism believes in superiority over other

2.2. Patriotism criticizes the country flaws to make it better, while nationalism sees the criticism as betrayal.

2.3. Patriotism values other countries and culture, while nationalism sees other as a threat

2.4. Patriotism emphasizes democratic values freedom and justice, and nationalism focuses on power and dominance

2.5. Patriotism supports national policies, while nationalism can lead to protectionism.

3. How Patriotism and nationalism are two sides of the same coin

3.1. Both express love and loyalty to one's nation

3.2. Both of them emphasize a shared national identity.

3. Both inspire people to participate in national causes, or protest for national interests.

3. Both together desire to protect the nation.

3. Both promote national unity.

4. Patriotism and nationalism are not two sides of the same coin.

4.1. Patriot's loyalty is thoughtful and responsible, which support justice and freedom, while nationalist's loyalty is intense puts the nation above.

4.2. Patriotism ~~celebrate~~ diversity within unity, while nationalist promote single identity.

4.3. Patriotism ~~protect~~ the nation and its values, while nationalism guarding its identity ~~maintain~~ dominance.

4.4. Patriotism ~~inspire~~ people through share values and civic responsibilities, while nationalism ~~inspire~~ people through emotional pride and fear of threat.

4.5. Patriotism ~~protect~~ democratic values while nationalist protect national pride and dominance.

5. Conclusion

What's the difference between hading 2 and 4??

Work on grammatical mistakes especially subject verb agreement mistakes

Avoid repetition of ideas