

Date: _____

Paragraph

Day: _____

→ Journalism in modern world. (250)

paragraphing please

Journalism is a challenging task in modern world. Due to the fact that, the flood of information from multiple sources made journalism a challenging job. This is because, a journalist faces pressure to provide quick content, balancing objectivity and security issues. Journalism is a biggest challenge in the modern world. This is because, due to the integration of advanced technology especially AI which represents the false content real. Similarly, this make the journalism a challenging task to prove and distinguish exit and fake data. For instance, AI can generate fake videos, audio clips and images which are misleading the public and complicating Journalism to verify sources. Such challenge make journalism a difficult task to provide quick and factual data. Moreover in modern good in basic generic

Date: _____

Day: _____

world where data is easily accessible everywhere. The speedy availability of data pressurize the journalism to provide quick and factual data in a short period of time. For instance, this phenomenon sometimes referred to a "churnalism" which involve republishing press release without adequate verification, which compromising journalism standards.