

Rich in Politicians, we need Statesmen.

Thesis statement:-

To address political and economic instability emanating from traditional and non-traditional security threats, the state desperately need statesman rather than politician.

advertise@zameen.com

Need Help?

0800 ZAMEEN (92633)

Outline

1) Introduction

2.0) Difference between politicians and Statesman.

3.0) The state needs statesman rather than politicians

3.1) To deal with political polarization emanating from narrow interests

3.2) To ensure good governance in the country.

3.3) To develop sustainable and robust foreign policy outlook.

3.4) To ensure political stability in the country.

3.5) To ensure sustainable economic growth in the country.

3.6) To protect the ideological foundations of the state.

3.7) To consolidate civic nationalism in the face of subnationalism.

4.0) Politicians cannot be tantamount to statesmen because:

4.1) They rely on regional specific popularity.

4.2) They nourish narrow interests in the face of broader national interests.

4.3) They rely on certain undemocratic forces to retain their power.

4.4) They cannot ensure broader nationalism in the face of subnationalism.

5.0) Conclusion.

advertise@zameen.com

Need Help?

0800 ZAMEEN (92633)