

Advanced technology has objectified humanity.

1. Introduction:

The question whether advanced technology has objectified or personified humanity is of great debate. But keeping in mind the advanced modern challenges, advanced technology has objectified humanity. It can be transformed for the betterment of humanity through wise use and efficient surveillance.

2. Relationship between advanced technology and its objectification of humanity.

3. Advanced technology has objectified humanity (THESIS)

- a. Advancement in lethal warfare technologies leaves little room to hold humanity high.
- b. The rat race for nuclear advancement sidelines the idea of humanity.
- c. Advanced technology like position tracking breaches privacy, a vital component of humanity.
- d. Cybercrimes and cyberbullying increased manifolds due to advancement in technology leaving humanity in shakles.
- e. Advanced technologies in food sciences violates safety standards without paying heed to its consequences on health.

f. Advanced technologies to collect sensitive information without consent is in stark contrast to the prerequisites of humanity.

g. Industrial advancement degrades environment posing a direct yet hidden threat to humanity.

4. Advanced technology has enhanced humanity. (ANTITHESIS).

a. Advanced technology is a direct saviour of humanity but advanced counterterrorism measures.

b. Increased food production due to advanced technology has made it accessible to everyone, adding an element to humanity.

c. Advanced technology has ~~made~~ saved humanity by finding cure for diseases earlier lethal.

d. Advanced technology has ~~not~~ brought connectivity enhancing humanity.

e. It is the abuse of advanced technology, not the technology that is posing a threat to humanity.

5. The objectification of humanity by advanced technology has weighed ~~out~~ down its positive implications for humanity (SYNTHESIS).

a. Cyber advancement has made terrorism more secure and challenging to counter.

b. The nutritional value of Genetically Modified Food has done more harm than good to humanity.

- c. It has also given more ways for getting diseased so cure is of little importance.
- d. Unnecessary connectivity has its own negative implications for humanity.
- e. ~~No~~ No efforts are done to prevent the abuse which is objectifying humanity.

7 Conclusion.