

1) Women Universities are Agents of Change:

Thesis Statement:

Women Universities have a very impactful role in bringing social changes. Women being an important part of society play an effective role through various platforms and societies in universities. By strengthening such platforms by addressing women issues from domestic violence to sexual abuse, women universities become an important agent of change.

2) Do We really need literature in Our lives?

Thesis Statement:

Literature is inevitable for social and personal development of human beings. The need of literature is because it enlarges one's world view added by critical thinking, self-reflection and emotional growth. The easy access of literature through various useful e-apps help to remain connected with it.

3) Pakistan And Future of Kashmir Cause

Thesis statement:

The future of Kashmir cause seems uncertain and ambiguous with passage of time. Inability of Indo-Pak consensus to reach on a diplomatic forum is main reason of Kashmir issue. The issue can be resolved only through plebiscite as recommended by United Nations.

(4) Polarized Politics: the issue and Challenges of Democracy In Pakistan

Thesis statement:

The ongoing perpetual conflict among political parties is due to political divide. This political polarization is the result of ideological conflicts among parties. A broader level inter and intra party consensus on governance and democracy, can minimize the cancerous effects of political divide.

Date: _____

Day: _____

5) Global Power Dynamics And Pakistan's Foreign Policy

Thesis Statement:

The 'developed' countries have everlasting role in global power dynamics. While developing countries like Pakistan are in pursuit of impactful and balanced relations with developed countries. Pakistan should strengthen and optimize diplomatic ties, by increasing its outreach through sectors like economy, education, defence etc.