

Hope:

Paragraphs Writing

Hope is not merely an emotion but, a Psychologically driving force empowers with actions, struggles and sustainability even one's loss his battle. It ignites minds, hearts and body to create uncertainty. Hope without an actions are just blind spot because without endurance, taking harder right over easier wrong and steadfastness are its essence.

Without hope life will become dull, drab and meaningless. Man doesn't focus on nature, Creations and even his own body which welcomed human insight to observe.

Hope is a key source of resilience generation. In history, it is only the hope that lead to empires establishment, Technology advancement, disaster met globally but with the spark of hope, nations re-established their recaptured territories, drastically worsened families sustain their identity and demoralized communities civilized or cultivated.

It is only hope, that leads to sun revolution, converting days into nights & vice versa.

Nature and natural creations are big witnesses of hope. patterns of seasons, life cycle of living beings and its-self soul of human teach lesson of hope.

Because it brings peace.

With the hope changing results, a student strive for study, sick one fought against disease, a warrior attack an enemy and a researcher observe deeply.