

Outline

Future of feminism movement in

Pakistan

- 1- Introduction
- 2- Concept and context of feminism in Pakistan
 - 2.1- Prepartition women's movements
 - 2.2- 1950-1970s reforms (Family laws ordinance 1961)
 - 2.3- Zia era resistance (WAF-Woman Action Forum)
- 3- Current Status of Feminist Movement
 - 3.1- Female literacy rate is growing day by day.
 - 3.2- Women in civil services, parliament, Judiciary and corporate sectors.
- 4- Future of Feminist movement in Pakistan
 - 4.1- Feminism will expand to include women, transgender communities, working class women.
 - 4.2- High ratio of women will seen in the services like entrepreneurs, freelancing.
 - 4.3- Women will move away from English-centric slogans to Urdu and regional languages.
 - 4.4- NGOs, academia, courts, media will shape feminist policies.
 - 4.5- Traditional patriarchy will not disappear immediately.
 - 4.6- Future activism will shift from streets to hybrid online-offline spaces

Conclusion