

Decreasing Enrollments in Pakistani Universities: Causes and Consequences

Outline:

A- Introduction

Thesis statement: Multiple factors are contributing in declining enrollments in Pakistani universities, which are causing various consequences in the prosperity of State.

B- Causes of decreasing Enrollments in Pakistani Universities

- i- High fees and institutional expenditures
- ii- NO use of technology in educational institution
- iii- NO Skilled-base learning
- iv- Rising extremism in educational premises
- v- Divergent learning course to market demand.

- vi- Less extra-curricular activities
- vii- Over-populated universities
- viii- Over-prescribing teaching and learning system
- ix- Increasing cases of harassment in university
- x- Student's blackmailing and exploitation by administrations
- xi- Weak Governmental educational policies
- xii- Poor and old infrastructure of universities
- xiii- Lack of proper facilities in universities of Pakistan

C- Consequences of decreasing enrollment in Pakistani Universities

- i- Abrupt rise in illiterate population
- ii- Vast decline in skilled labours
- iii- High unemployment in youth population
- iv- Leadership crisis in future

v- Decline in entrepreneurship in Pakistan vi- Hypes of poverty in country vii- Fall of competent policy makers viii- Shortage of technocrats ix- Unawareness leading to violation of rules and regulations x- Over-exploitation of fundamental rights of poor and middle class by elite xi- Disconnectivity of Pakistan from Global village due to illiterate youth and leaderships.

D- Conclusion