

Climate Change is a Myth

I - Introduction

II - 2022 Flood in Pakistan as a case study.

III - Economic implication in Pakistan due to Climate Change

A - Agriculture loss in Pakistan due to Climate Change ~~in Pakistan~~

B - Damaging infrastructure in Pakistan

C - Increasing inflation and poverty in Pakistan

D - Increasing Energy demand in Pakistan.

IV - Environmental affects in Pakistan due to Climate Change.

A - Melting of glaciers in Pakistan

B - Raising sea level and thread for coastal belt area

C - Irregular pattern of river flow increasing water scarcity.

D - Deforestation and biodiversity loss in Pakistan

E - Increasing Air polluted cities in Pakistan

V - Climate Change increasing social and health issues in Pakistan.

A- Increasing migration due to climate change in Pakistan.

B- Climate change increasing health crises in Pakistan.

VI - Security implication and due to climate change in Pakistan

A- Increasing water conflict and border dispute in Pakistan.

VII - Climate Change Affecting Globally.

A - Globally displacement due to climate change.

B - Increasing world food insecurity threat.

C - Affecting global economy every year.

D - Disturbing global supply chain management.

E - Increasing energy demand and shifting on renewable energy resources.

VIII - Why people think climate change is a myth

A - Lack of knowledge still some people think climate change is a myth.

IX - Conclusion

Climate Change is one of the natural weapon that can destroy vulnerable countries. Pakistan has faced the flood. And the reason behind was Climate Change. Due to the reason of Climate Change temperature is increasing every year. And the glaciers are melting and increasing the sea level. The coastal belt of Pakistan and other state is in alarming zone. Millions of people are expected migrate and move in Urban areas. Due to the rise of temperature and flood production of agriculture and other sectors are affected. And due to the flood Pakistan faced infrastructural loss and faced the health crises. The GDP of other vulnerable countries are also affected. And in future World will face the Economic and displacement crises. The entire debate converge Climate Change is a threat for the world and its impacts are dreadful. Climate Change is affecting on each sector like Economic, Health, Technology and furthermore.