International peacekeeping and human-rights institutions failed to stop genocide of Sudan. Blood of thousand civilians has shed the land of Sudan. Yet, United Nations, OIC, BRICS+ and NATO have not taken any apparent impactful steps to stop it. Gaza genocide is the very recent and relevant case. Death toll of 68,000 plus Palestinians was insufficient for so-called nominal organizations to stop the genocide at proper time (Al-Jazeera). Biased and politicised role of international organizations has led to numb policies to feel the pain as also stated by Antonio Guterres. Selective support of UAE, Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Turkiye of RSF and SAF has aggravated the situation (Down). Yet, a significant factor has been neglected which is the loss of mass innocent civilians. According to Noam Chomsky, human lives ~~have~~ are no more priority in modern wars of resources. It is obvious to the world, that these platforms have lost their real cause. Loss of such innocent civilians will be continued and will not be stopped unless these organizations adhere to the real essence of their platforms. In last, lives of Sudanese are still in danger due to inclined and selective view of international organizations towards various issues.
