

Punctuation (2025)

In Pakistani folklore, Heer Ranjha, Sohni Mahiwal, and Lassi Punnu are iconic tales of star-crossed lovers. These stories, deeply rooted in tribal connections, serve as allegories and commentaries on spiritual and romantic love. They explore the complexities of human emotion, the trials of love, and the transformative power of spiritual elevation. The themes of trial, emotional anguish, separation, and expulsion resulting in the moral polishing of lovers are timeless and universal. Heer

Ranjha's epic tale, penned by Kalash Shah, is a masterpiece of Punjabi literature — a testament to the power of love to transcend moral bounds.

Comprehension (2020)

Ans 1

Globalization is the process of exchange of goods and services, population and the culture between the developed and developing countries of the world to make a single global society.

2.

Electronic mass Communication is the network which keeps people of the world connected with each-other irrespective of their national borders.

3.

The term Third World denotes the developing countries of the world which are open to follow the trend of deregulation, liberalism and privatization.

4.

Privatization refers to the transfer of ownership and control of assets from public to private sectors.

5

Liberalism in the given context means adopting the free-market economic policies and which is open to new ideas like deregulation and privatization.

Precis (2016)

Title: A Tour to the Cherokee

The writer wanted a tour away from the usual holiday crowd. He was pleased when John suggested ~~him~~ a place called Cherokee. There, they visited a town known as Qualla Boundary.

The Qualla Boundary tries to give a small glimpse of the 18th C.E to the tourists. However, there, they met with a tourist guide — George. He told them that Cherokee donot solely depends on trade for living.

On the Bingo Weekends, a Bingo hall was opened which attract people to the various kinds of games. These ~~typ~~ games are the source of earning for those people.

Word count 95.