

Charity is sometime a sweet poison.

A. Introduction

"Charity is the opium of privileged"
(Chinua Achebe)

Thesis Statement:-

Charity is a short term solution but in long term it snatches financial sovereignty, rusts the innovative minds which lead to brain drain and rise in anti state narratives. Charity at a particular instant stabilize the economy but can be a vital player in spreading chaos and anarchy.

B. ~~Charity is a sweet poison~~

1. Financial Sovereignty is lost

~~Evidence:-~~

Charity gave loan to Pakistan of 17.6 trillion in budget on condition of implementing agricultural tax

2. Charity promotes anti state narrative.

~~Evidence:-~~

Kenya Youth led protest 2024

3. Charity is a source of violence

~~Evidence:~~ Cocabhamma Wars in Africa.

3. ~~Charity is a blessing in world~~
4. Charity has a major melting brain
steam drain

Evidence:- ~~Charity is a blessing in world~~
3 million students moved abroad
for studying on various scholarship
programs (OECD report)

5. Charity disturbs education cycle.

Evidence:-

Article 25-A is violated while having charitable institutes and government institutes

6. Societal fragmentation is caused by charity.

Evidence:- ~~Charity is a blessing in world~~
Foreign aid in Thal (PIDE report)

7. Charities involve foreign actors in state decision making.

Evidence:-

IMF demanded structural reforms
from Pakistan in various sectors

8. Charities led to instability

Evidence:- ~~Charity is a blessing in world~~

In Sahel region of Africa countries
like Mali faces political instability

9- Charity disrupts balance of power.

Evidence:-

World is becoming multipolar and shift in interest from geostrategic to geopolitics economic.

10 Charity is directly responsible for corruption

Evidence:-

Misuse of charitable foundation for personal gain in Kazakhstan

11- Charity is disturbing environment by giving non environmental friendly technology

Evidence

China is providing solar panel across the CPEC project and globe.

12- Charity lead to environment mismanagement

Evidence:-

Africa is struggling with waste management due to second hand clothes given in charity

13 Charity accumulate the resources

Evidence

Evidence:-

The Carnegie Corporation has been accused of promoting a technocratic ap that prioritize interest of wealthy and power

4- Charity supports paternalistic Attitude
Evidence.

Bangladesh (BRAC's) as case study

Conclusion

Write relevant points

Work on your argumentation

Comprehend the topic properly

Why charity is a sweet poison

Make people more depend on
charity

No incentive to work but to solu
rely on look

You need to highlight why it is considered as sweet poison

Charity does not always lead to violence

This outline is okay

DATE: / /

DAY: / /

As Children we love heroes,
As Adults we understand
Villains.

A. Introduction:-

Hook

Rousseau believed that children are born innocent and free, but are corrupted by society and education

Thesis Statement:

Beauty and bravery is attracted by innocence without knowing the dark circumstances. In childhood fantasy is preferred over real world due to echoing of one character beauty from all sides. As we grow up we can clearly identify the grey line which made a person to step on evil side. The hard realities of society enable us to understand the dark picture of villain

B. As Children we love Heroes:

1. We love fantasy in childhood.

- Case Study of 'Soam Pari'

2. Heroes support the society at every cost.

- Case Study of 'Spider Man'

3. What we see, attract us in childhood heroes
  - Case study of 'Tinku Bell'
4. Children are emotionally drawn to support their hero
  - Case study of 'Doremon'
5. Childhood heroes are glorified in swing society
  - Case study of 'Icon lady'
6. Heroes are always drawn in sketch of multitalented
  - Case study of 'Scooby Doo'
7. Childhood heroes have more knowledge than children which attracts children.
  - Case study of 'Dora'

C

As Adult we understand villain

1. As Adult we differentiate good and bad.

- Case study of 'Joker'

2. As adult we realize villains are made not born
- Case study of 'Hitler'

3 As Adult we understand human side of villain

- 'X-Man', A survivor of trauma who fight against oppression

4 We can relate our hardships of life with villain

- 'Shylock', A man seeking justice in his own way

5 Sufferings of villain are not glorified

'Maleficent' portrayed as evil, but later revealed as betrayed and heart broken.

6 Villains are made due to negligence of society

'Walter White' A hero turned villain out of desperation and pucle.

7 Thin line between hero and villain is well understood.

'Erik' in 'Black Panther' had dream of justice for oppressed people but due to ignored by Wakanda he turned violent

8 Conclusion.