

ESSAY

Women Universities as an agents of Change.

Outline

I Introduction.

Thesis Statement: Women universities empower the women in political, economical and social sectors. However, women empowerment is necessary to change the society. Therefore, women universities provides awareness, rationality, ethics, responsibilities and their role in society.

II Women Universities as agents of Change.

A) Women Universities provides awareness to women about their rights.

B) Women Universities make women rational for decision making.

C) Women Universities teach women

vague

Roles in society.

D) They provide women importance to change the society.

they?

E) They empower the women in politics and <sup>public</sup> administration because they provide <sup>independent</sup> education decision making skills.

F) They provide economic skills to the whole outline is ridden with grammatical and sentence structure mistakes the points are vague, unclear, irrelevant and generic often.

the language is informal

please reattempt,

women to improve<sup>the</sup> economy of the country.

G) They provides tolerance, Polity and forgiveness to women in all ~~aspects~~ of life.

H) They differentiate<sup>Between</sup> the both genders and teach women importance in marriage life.

I) They increase the literary rate of women which ~~has~~<sup>is</sup> importance for women development.

J) They provides technical educational and vocational skills to women and make women independent economically.

K) They teach ethical education to women which is necessary for morality and Justice.

L) They provide<sup>educated</sup> women importance to change the country illiteracy ratio.

M) They provide women scientific education for research and development which is necessary for women ~~gender~~ development.

III ~~Women~~<sup>Some</sup> solutions for women contemporary issue.

A) women ~~are~~<sup>educational</sup> discrimination <sup>in</sup> all spheres must be eliminated.

B) Violence against women must be eliminated through Punishment and awareness.

(IV) Conclusion.

Every gender importance is necessary for the development of a society but women <sup>have more</sup> importance to change the society because they ~~nurish~~ <sup>nurish</sup> the children who <sup>change</sup> ~~are~~ the society's ~~infuture~~ <sup>future</sup> of the country. Women Universities are performing ~~a~~ vital role for <sup>the</sup> women development through education. Therefore, women in society are performing important role which is necessary for the development of a society. Women in universities learning educational ~~and~~ vocational skills for ~~economic development~~. Women universities ~~developing~~ <sup>in women</sup> rationality for decision making, ~~developing~~ <sup>in women</sup> morality for justice, providing women economic opportunities to reduce ~~the~~ inflation, providing scientific education for the development of the women. However, women universities performing important role to change the society and as well as <sup>to change the</sup> ~~be~~ country condition through theoretical and practical education to women. Therefore, the importance of women universities can't be neglected to change the country condition. This, women universities are the main sources of woman empowerment, woman development and woman independence in economic, social, Political and cultural spheres ~~7~~ life.