

Women Universities as an Agent of Change.

I - Introduction

II - An overview of women Universities in Pakistan

III - Women Universities as an Agent of Change in Pakistan

A - Increasing workforce and economic contribution

B - Participation in Political Leadership.

C - Playing the role in Governance and decision Making

D - Working in STEM project.

E - Improving family and cultural outcomes.

F - Expanding Research and innovation

G - Mental health and confidence building.

H - ^{en} Strengthening Entrepreneurship

IV - Women Universities as a agent of Change in world.

In the introduction Your focus

A - Social Transformation in Society should be to highlight women as

B - Economic Empowerment of women in world

so C - Education of women in World

Points are okay but focus on

D - Women Participation in Politics is increasing in world

main point women universities

E - Global Networking and peace building

F - Contibuting in SDGs

Verb+ ing form preceded by

G - Psychological spill over to society.

V - Challenges

A - Traditional Social Cultures in societies

B - Lack of Economic opportunities

C - Lack of infrastructure in under develop countries.

VI - Conclusion.

In the history of Pakistan, the Chief Minister of Punjab is Women, Maryam Nawaz Sharif is an example. The contribution of women in workforce directly affecting in CDP, and making the economy strong. The participation of women in politics is increasing. Furthermore, playing the role in governance and playing the role in decision making on different managerial positions.

And Educated women working in science, Technology and Energy project. The educated women improving the social status of her family and breaking the hurdles of tradition in society.

Additionally, Womens are participating in research and contributing in innovation on national and international level. And they are doing business and becoming financial independent.

As well in global world educated women participating in every field of life. Like, Taiwan and Estonia providing the best education in world specially women.

In Iceland is one of the country maximum women participating in economics. The entire debate converge. Women education institutes playing the crucial role as an agent of Change in society.

Educated women playing the part of workforce, Politics, Technology, business and research project on national and international level. And breaking the social and cultural trend.