

TRUMP<sup>13</sup> DECISION : ISRAEL'S PRESSURE ON GAZZA

As Donald Trump's decision off post-war plan for Palestinians, the Israeli military more depressed its operations on Gaza city. Israel is under political pressure for its two-year campaign on Gaza, where the United Nations declared a famine. Mediators proposed a peace treaty, which has been accepted by Hamas, whose attack triggered the October 2023 Catastrophe. But Israel has to give a response. In reality, Gaza's civil defence agency said Israeli strikes killed at least 24 people last Wednesday. The Israeli military said troops were operating on the boundary to demolish terrorist sites. Israeli Army's arabic spokesperson said on 'X' that evacuation is unavoidable. A resident Hamad al-Karawi, in Jabalia north of the Gaza City said that a message was broadcast from dense to evacuate immediately, said we have no place to refuge in as we scattered onto streets.
