~~Title~~ = Role of Freedom in Education

There ~~exist~~ three view points regarding freedom in education. One supports complete freedom in education, the other supports the authoritative control. ~~and~~ the last one with a large support base, supports freedom but only for the good ones. The writer disagrees with complete freedom as it cannot ensure good moral conduct. The supporters of individual freedom also do not value education. To them, ~~author~~ defends education as a means of cooperation and development. <sup>Similarly,</sup> The educators supporting most freedom have other characteristics as well. Hence, ~~these~~ freedom methods cannot be left unchecked. ~~So to author,~~ education is more than just the moral development and it cannot be achieved by children themselves.

~~Title~~: Benefits of Green Urbanization

In the busy life of cities, the green spaces while providing home to various species, prove to be a source of leisure. The greenery not only adds beauty to the environment but serves as an appealing place for community gatherings. People from different walks of life gather there making it a home to cultural engagements. The benefits of urban forestry extend to overall well-being of people and the environment. However, the challenge of sustainable urbanization preserving the nature still persists there, making it a shared responsibility in the evolving world.
