

Reforestation as a Global Urgency

~~For~~ can Introduction:

For centuries, wars and destruction were dangerous. Thrust of power made individuals blind and reinforce them to develop in every domain. Achievement of one group induced security threats in others, in order to maintain balance of power, other groups also made progress. ~~To ~~order~~ to attain power, mankind become ignorant~~ They advance in every field, they transformed from rural to urbanization and industrialization. In the stairs of development, they become ignorant necessities of globe. They had cut the trees for weapons, industries made forest difficult to survive. Consequently, the world is experiencing its worst phase of deforestation. Natural disasters, melting of glaciers and

What about uncertainty rising sea level are the eye opener for man kind. Although, the global leaders and researchers are aware of the worsening situation and make agreements to fix the uncertainty, but it is a dire need to strictly implement the plans and immediate take steps for reforestation. So, the world could be made the cradle of peace.

Avoid cutting

Convey your ideas in a well coherent manner

Proper use of words

Avoid spelling mistakes

You have just mention other group made progress and then ended your sentence ..

complete it in proper manner

Tenses mistakes

Essay:

Frailty is no more the name of women.

History demonstrates that for centuries women were confined to homes, denied education, considered inferior and unfit for leadership role. Shakespeare also echoed this in his writing Hamlet's lament, "Frailty is the name of women. But the tide of time has over turn this perception. The thinking pattern of society is getting change about women. They are no longer weak but resilient, courageous and intellect. Although, to day, social and cultural factors exist to spread the idea of weaknesses of women, women persistency and courage have made them the platform to shatter the myth of inherent frailty. Today women strength not only lies in her ability to endure but lead create and transform society. Indeed, patriarchy is no more the name of women. empowerment of dignity and presence have taken its place.