

2005 Topic: Strategies For
Alleviation Of Poverty.

Outline

A. Introduction

1. Introductory statement
2. Thesis statement:

There are several ways to alleviate poverty, however, stable economy, digital skills, micro-financing and transparency are the best strategies to reduce poverty.

B. Strategies for the alleviation of poverty

1. Economic stability leads to reduction in poverty.

IMF Overview: Macro-economic

Policy and Poverty
Reduction

Date: _____

Day: _____

2. Micro-financing and small loans

Case study: Grameen Bank, Bangladesh

3. Teaching digital skills and tools

Case study: DIGIBIZ, Pakistan

4. Skill based education

IPA Policy Insights on Vocational and Skills Training

5. Equal opportunities for all

6. Low rates of taxation

OECD report 2024 - Taxation and Inequality

7. Subsidizing shadowed sectors to enhance job opportunities such as textiles, cotton production, etc.

8. Encouraging entrepreneurs and start-ups

World Bank report

9. Shifting of trend from relying on salaries to

Date: _____

Day: _____

self-employment and businesses.
Global Entrepreneurship
Monitor

10. Net accessibility to avail international opportunities

11. Safety, protection and safe environment ~~for~~
Case study: Afghanistan

12. Fair and transparent
division of resources

13. Pragmatic policies that are fruitful to alleviate poverty
BISP

14. Strict watchdog of government in poverty-reduction
Case study: IBP

C. Conclusion

Date: _____

Paragraph

Day: _____

Taliban can be either ^{the} conveys of peace or terrorism. Since the inception of Taliban OR, ~~has~~ escalated escalation in terrorists attacks has been ostensible. The cold play of Kabul against Pakistan by supporting Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) is in contradiction ^{with} what Taliban narrate on social media.

Peace and tranquility cannot be attained just by building an optimistic narration. ~~TTP has been provided~~ Taliban has provided safe-havens, weapons, a safe network and free movement to TTP in Afghanistan.

TTP gets prepared and conduct ~~counter~~ terrorist attacks on civilians, armed forces and on their camps.

Date: _____

Day: _____

On the other hand, Islamabad has ^{always} highlighted ~~stunts~~ these dual standards of Taliban. They have been informed diplomatically about the consequences of such standards regarding Pakistan. Islamabad has counter-attacked every attack of TTP inside the Pakistan and has hit the hideouts of TTP inside Afghanistan also.

Recent clash between Pakistan and Afghanistan grabbed international attention towards dual measures of Taliban-02 government. To sum up, it is impossible for Taliban to play the game of terrorism and peace by achieving ^{the} ends from both sides.