

Education Demands Freedom

There are three school of thoughts of freedom in education. There are those who says, Children should be completely free, completely subject to authority, and those who say they should be free, but in the spite of freedom. The last one is larger in logically because they believes liberty ensures men perfect. But after this acception, adults will no more be virtuous. However, the author cannot agree with this school of thought who believes education should not have optimistic perpose. Moreover, communities demands cooperative educators with proper and necessary hands of science and technology impulse. In social point of view must be something positive in education, must equip children with the essential tools for their integration into Society.

2023 Translation

The old man said that, there was a mountain on the other side of the jungle, where the flower grew which fragrance restores the lost eyesight. However, the mountain very high and there are many rocks, thorny bushes, and largest stones obstructing the way. There came so many people and went away but none reached the flower. Perhaps, that is why there is sorrow and sufferings in the world, and man is in search for light.
