

Outline 1

⇒ Topic:- True peace is not merely the absence of tension, it is the presence of justice.

(A) Introduction:-

(B) True peace comes from the implementation of true justice, rather than only removing tension.

① Justice is foremost the very first vital solution to any unanimous matter.

② How justice ensures smooth flow.

③ Absence of justice leads to every chaos and hurdle.

④ Justice when delayed will definitely creates questions for general public.

⑤ Deliberately providing justice is the foremost duty of every state.

⑥ Justice sometimes seems to be a strong bond in holding a nation together.

② Real essence of peace or smooth flow could only be possible by justice.

③ Peace is only the privileged right of any citizen and it is only possible by justice.

④ How 80% of the peace lies in implication of justice only.

→ Factors that could lead towards solution dilemma a way forward.

① Judiciary should make such reforms to ensure the facility of justice.

② Judiciary is only the institution responsible for the peace.

③ Peace and justice are two parallel branches without one it could not lead towards solution.

④ Justice should be available at immediate basics.

⇒ Topic 2:-

To reign is worth ambition though in Hell.

(A) Introduction.

(B) Rule matters, now matter by hook or crook.

① Sometimes establishing rule is foremost priority.

② Craving for power is more practising.

③ Ruling body always seems to be more prominent that's why people prefer it.

④ Developing command cane is a blessing no matter what type of audience.

⑤ Commanding in a worthless place is more admirable than service in high place.

⑥ Freewill is the basic attribute of human nature.

⑦ It is a human nature that he don't want to be ruled by anyone.

(10) In some^{one's} own leadership he is answerable to none.

(11) Even creatures other than the humans don't want to be ruled.

(12) Some challenges why maintaining rule for every individual human is not possible; Limitations.

(1) World is a small place so rule belongs to few some hands.

(2) Human is restricted or limited to obey.

(3) Some are appointed to command while others are obliged to obey it.

(4) It couldn't be possible that everyone become commanding body at once.

→ Outline = 3:-

(A) Introduction.

(B) Investing in knowledge is the best investment

(1) knowledge is the key solution to any problem

(2) knowledge grows the entire nation hood.

(3) Investing in resources could benefit for short term but investing in knowledge could make nation dependent.

(4) knowledge creates a contended ideology

(5) knowledge provides solution to the hurdles

(6) Investing in knowledge paves the best interest.

(7) It creates sense of broadmindedness rather than narrow mindedness.

(8) Creates development on practical grounds

(C) Some challenges faced in education sector:-

(1) Unequal chances for everyone to acquired that blessing.

(2) There some some hurdles which becomes inexorable on the path of education.

- ③ In even today in 3rd world countries even in 25th Century education is considered as day dreaming.