

Democracy in Pakistan Hurdles and Hopes!

~~75 years ago~~

Seventy five years ago, people migrated to a newly born state in the hope of freedom, liberty, that their life will as they will, that migration is one of deadliest, full of blood where many people were assassinated, looted and yet stood firmly for sake of free will that newly born state was Pakistan and will is sake of Democracy. Democracy can be best informed as stated by Abraham Lincoln.

"government by the people, to the people, for the people". The core idea behind democracy is the general will, what people want to experience, different lifestyles must be based on this will. In the context of Pakistan, democracy was theoretically achieved although never experienced. It faces hurdles which include political hurdles, social resistance, administration errors, Religious implications, inconsistent awareness, whereas, world remain on the hopes, and the same hope is raised in the Pakistan. hope works in the form of Education, Role of Media, awareness campaigns, Citizen Resistant, political participation, regular elections, normalizing different perspectives, Importance of Voting along recommendation. Order to achieve the hopes. This essay will bring light to Hurdles and hopes of democracy in Pakistan, along practical recommendation based on the resources of the state.