

Introduction

Thesis statement

Media plays a significant role in the Palestine-Israel conflict by information provision, narrative building, builds public opinion, global influence, news coverage, advocates for humanitarian rights, raise awareness, emphasizes on journalist rights and propaganda machinery.

What is the role of media in Palestine-Israel conflict?

- (A) Information provision
 - (a) coverage of facts
 - (b) collecting news
- (B) narrative building
 - (a) emphasis on concerns of both sides.
- (C) builds public opinion
 - (a) Public pressure drawn upon Arab countries by media.
- (D) Global influence
 - (a) asserts influence globally by use of state & social media.
- (E) News coverage
 - (a) to build on ground narrative.
- (F) advocates for humanitarian rights
 - (a) draws attention towards Prince humanitarian crisis such as starvation, famine.

(G) Raise awareness

(a) delivering verified and credible information to raise awareness about the situation.

(H) Advocates for journalists rights

(a) protection for journalists

(b) calls for security of journalists.

(I) Propaganda machinery

(a) skewed narrative used to lobby.

III conclusion

The disturbing news and images received from the various news channels emphasize on the severity of the crisis. Each day since the inception of this war, media platforms have drawn the attention towards this long-standing dispute between Israel and Palestine. The conflict continues to challenge peace and augment international focus and dominated the global headlines. Media avenues worked tirelessly to strike a balance between objective news coverage and emotional story-telling. Media plays a significant role in information provision, narrative building, shape public opinion, assert global influence, and news coverage. This also advocates for humanitarian rights, raise awareness, emphasis on journalist rights, and propaganda machinery.