

"Climate change: Causes & Consequences"

Outline :-

I Introduction

a. Hook

b. Background

c. Thesis Statement :-

Drastic climate change is a very concerning issue as it is causing socio-economic imbalance, Health issues & political unrest due to rising population, un-controlled industrialization, ^{wrong} agriculture practices, literacy and awareness of different nations and disintegration amongst nations. ~~of its~~

II. Causes of climate change.

1. Rising population

a. Better healthcare

b. Developing countries not paying attention

c. Non-serious attitude of population

2. Uncontrolled Industrialization

a. Industrial revolution

b. Non-renewable energy resources

c. Economic requirement

3. Wrong agricultural practices.

- a. Agriculture revolution.
- b. Leaching of fertilizers, pesticides into water.
- c. Reckless use of water.

4. Literacy and awareness.

- a. Not a problem of underdeveloped country.
- b. Educational curriculum not updated.
- c. NGOs limitation.
- d. Media's role.

5. Common Goal lacking amongst Nations.

- a. Disparity of common ~~goal~~ ~~group~~ ground.
- b. Developed vs underdeveloped countries.

III. Effects of Climate change.

1. Socio-economic imbalance.

- a. Developing countries struggling with floods management due to lack of funds.
- b. Devastation of agriculture causing food insecurity.
- c. Farmers losing their livelihood.
- d. Dirty water ~~but~~ causing water scarcity.

2. Health issues.

- a. Dirty air quality causing asthma, breathing problems in general population.

- b. Mental issues and Psychological impacts.
- ~~#~~c. Bad quality of food causing malnutrition.
- 3. Political unrest.
 - a. People demanding clean cities.
 - b. Inappropriate allocation of resources causing disparity amongst different sectors

IV Recommendation

V Conclusion.