

sustainability → restraint, efficiency, humility. ^{from fossils.} enterprises not an initiative

Public is of view that they are reducing their dependency on fossil fuels. Environment activists called it Carbon neutrality or Green labels but they are no more than marketing enterprises that leads to destruction and damage. Solar energy / Wind energy / electric vehicles EVs are made from rare earth minerals like Lithium and their infrastructure or production comes from fossil fuels. Not only this but these EVs emit more carbon than combustion engines, cannot be recycled and have limited lifespan. Similarly Turbine blades cannot be recycled and Solar panels will add waste i.e. toxics in future. So, this is of the opinion that we can save this world only by restraint, efficiency and humility. It is now known that they are really a deceptive slogan that are "Green Labels", "zero emission" and "Carbon Neutrality"

Title : (1) "Is Green Label or zero emission a deceptive slogan"
(2) Mitigation of one crisis leads to birth of another crisis.

1. Timothy's Rivals advised him to ship coal to Newcastle, England. As Newcastle was a city that was very popular for endless production and supply of coal. He was very confident despite having less knowledge. He decided to send a cargo full of coal because he could not realize that it already had coal production industries. His rivals wanted him to lose everything. That's why, by taking advantage of his limited knowledge, they advised him to send cargo full of coal to city having already enough coal. Their intention was only for him to lose whatever he got.

2. Dexter sold his cargo full of coal as miners of Newcastle went on strike. They closed all the factories and stopped producing coal locally. This caused shortage of coal in that city. It gave a chance to Dexter to sell his coal and on huge profits. This unexpected event of miners strike proved lucky for Dexter as he gained not only prize but profits as well.

3. Author is implying that Intelligence does not matter if one is having luck. Lack of knowledge or completely unaware about something does not change circumstances completely if one has good luck. Sometimes things happen on their own in their pattern without doing any effort. So, luck is very important to have good, successful life though intelligence is behind luck.

4. Dexter repeated success shows that traditional ideas like business, women, education could only be succeeded if they have luck. As his ideas of shipping cats to West Indies turned profitable as they are used to control rats. The bed warmers turned as molasses ladles. These are very common and a little bit unprofitable decisions ^{that} turned into profits because of his luck.

5. For Dexter's rivals decided to stop Dexter from becoming more successful by advising him decisions that were foolish but they proved to be genius. For example, His rivals, jealous of his success, asked him to send a cargo of coal to a place that is well known for coal production. Dexter's lack of knowledge did not allow him to understand that he ~~was~~ ~~making~~ his rivals are ditching him. But and thinking of themselves as genius and Dexter as foolish. But later on, opposite happened. When luck of Dexter shined, his coal got sold with profits due to ~~stoppe~~ protest of ^{local} miners. Then Rivals proved to be foolish and Dexter proved to be genius.

If any professor of Urdu claims that he understands content of Ghalib very well and he can make an atmosphere of on his qualities. So, No doubt, he is showing his educational capabilities but demand from him is that Say a verse like Ghalib's verse then he could not say it. Because Understanding and creation are two different concepts. Understanding comes from intelligence and though creation comes from research and findings. The level that became fate of Ghalib, that was not from ^{basically} hardwork or research but ^{result of} very common intelligence, feeling and from God. This ~~was~~ ^{the} is reason that even after decades, his poetry affects heart in same way ^{as} that in his time.
