

DAY: Tuesday

DATE: 14-10-25

Name Ume Farwa
Batch 83 (41203)
Mock Exam I
Online Test Series
By Sir Ali SHAHAB

Topic of essay

2 Delayed Marriages:

Causes and Consequences.

Outline

I Introduction

- Hook
- Background
- Thesis Statement: Delayed marriages, driven by economic, educational, and cultural transformations have evolved into a pressing social issue that demands awareness and balanced reforms to preserve the moral, emotional and demographic balance of society.

II Understanding the Concept of Delayed Marriages

- Definition and general meaning.
- Shift from early to late marriages.
- Modern lifestyle and social transformations behind the trend.

III Causes of Delayed Marriages

1 Economic Factors

- Rising inflation, Unemployment and financial instability.
- High marriage expenses and dowry system.
- Career establishment before marriage.

Educational Factors

- Extended academic years and professional training.
- Higher education goals, especially among women.

3 Social and cultural causes

- Urbanization and changing family patterns.
- Western influence and materialistic outlook.
- Unrealistic standard for "ideal partners".

4 Psychological and personal factors

- Fear of commitment and relationship failure.
- Emotional immaturity and insecurity.

5 Parental and Societal Pressures

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

- Class consciousness and rigid criteria.
- Delays due to overemphasis on status compatibility.

IV Consequences of Delayed Marriages

1

Social Consequences

- Declining birth rates and population imbalance.
- Weakening of family structures.
- Increased loneliness and social isolation.

2 Psychological Consequences

- Anxiety, depression and lack of companionship.
- Emotional dissatisfaction and instability.

3 Demographic and Economic impacts.

- Reduced fertility rates and late parenthood.
- Shrinking future workforce.

4 Moral and Religious Concerns

- Moral decline and increased in social evils.
- Deviation from religious teachings about family life.

V.

Recommendations

- 1 Simplify marriage customs and eliminate dowry culture.
- 2 Promote job creation and youth empowerment for financial stability.
- 3 Encourage a balanced approach between education, career, and family life.
- 4 Raise awareness through media and educational institutions about timely marriages.

5 Encourage parental flexibility and realistic expectations.

6 Strengthen religious and community counseling on marriage-related issues.

VI Conclusion

Essay

Marriage, the Cornerstone of human civilization, has long ensured emotional stability, moral strength, and social order. Yet in today's fast-paced and competitive world the traditional concept of marriage is undergoing a significant transformation. The growing trend of delayed marriages has become a visible reality across societies, particularly in developing nations where cultural norms once encouraged early unions. Economic hardships, prolonged education, and shifting social values have collectively pushed the age of marriages far beyond traditional expectations. What was once considered a sign of maturity and independence now carries profound social, psychological, and demographic implications. Indeed, delayed marriages

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

DAY: _____

DATE: _____

driven by economic, educational, and cultural transformations, have evolved into a pressing social ~~issues~~ that demands awareness and balanced reforms to preserve the moral and demographic balance of society.

