Q.N.2

True Teaching: Children's Company in Education

The writer criticizes moderns educational theorists. They overemphasized of not interfering the negative virtue with children. They neglect the positive merit of enjoying their company. Moreover, the author support genuine liking to children rather than using them as political or social gain. It will encourage them to respond positively to suggestions and accept prohibitions without resentment. Therefore, teachers those have quality can effectively manage children's freedom when necessary, without damaging them.

Translation

Pakistan is determined for the peace of Afghanistan because, peace in Afghanistan is extremely important for Pakistan. In historical perspective, Pakistan and Afghanistan due to the Islamic neighboring countries, are bound up ^{with} historical cultural and linguistic relations. These relations are inalienable. Both are dependent on each other and neither can live without the other. From day one, Pakistan's stance has been that a political solution to the Afghanistan problem be found. Even China also supports this view. China has said in this context that the Afghan problem can only be solved through peaceful negotiations involving all Afghan parties. China and Pakistan will solve the Afghan problem through negotiations for strategic interference.
