

The Ancient Greek Oracles

To resolve the mystery of life and overcome their fear, human being tried to communicate with the divine power. It believed to control their faith and universe. In ancient Greece, the soothsayers practised the art of giving oracles by interpreting various signs from the gods. These signs include lightning, thunder or animal entrails. However, some messages were delivered clear to an intermediary, in a state of ecstasy. The oracles were organized within sanctuaries and associated with different gods, with Apollo being the Greek soothsayers. The most important oracle was at Delphi, it was delivered with the intervention of Apollo; and the Dodna, oldest one who functioned with the assistance of Zeus.

Every era brings those challenges which, despite their disapproval but they have to choose in. Sometimes nature in order to test, keep in front of us so many option, which are not only unsuitable but also irrelevant; even that we have to choose them in our life. Today, as same continues. Every century has been bringing such changes, which were totally new than that of previous ones. Progress of science and technology taught to mankind, that could be as trash of knowledge and economical activities. If nature gives us with fruits, than it also encourage to spell its peels properly. Otherwise, it only increases in environmental pollution.

Education Demands Freedom

These are three school of thoughts of freedom in education.

There are those who says, children should be completely free, completely subject to authority and should be free, but in the spite of freedom.

Last one is always good because they believe liberty ensures moral perfection in children and adults. The author cannot agree those thought, believes education should have no positive purpose. Therefore, we live in communities which demand cooperation, and it is only possible with proper and necessary hand of science and technology impulse of education. In social point of view, must be something positive in education, must equip children with the tools essential for their integration into Society

The old man said that, there was a mountain on the other side of the jungle, where the flower grew which fragrance restores the lost eyesight. However, the mountain very high and there are many rocks, thorny bushes, and largest stones obstructing the way. There came so many people and went away but none reached the flower. Perhaps, that is why there is sorrow and sufferings in the world, and man is in search for light.
