

Essay:- Solar Energy: A Sustainable Solution or an Overrated Alternative?

Thesis Statement: Solar energy is a sustainable solution for the energy. On the contrary, some people claim that solar energy is an overrated alternative. However, solar energy is a viable solution in today's world.

Outline:

I. Introduction

II. Solar energy is a sustainable solution for the energy.

- A. Encourages energy innovation.
- B. Reduces greenhouse gases emissions.
- C. Support international commitments.
- D. Decreases dependence on energy imports.
- E. Creates employment opportunities among youth.
- F. Facilitates access to electricity.
- G. Promotes electric vehicles transport.
- H. Improves human health.

III. Some people claim that solar energy is an overrated alternative.

- A. High initial cost of projects.
- B. Excessive land requirement.
- C. Dependence on weather.

IV. Solar energy is a viable solution in today's world.

- A. Existence of government support and incentives.
- B. Provide floating solar farms.
- C. High technological advancements improve storage system.

V. Conclusion.