

Can We Prevent the third World War?

→ Outline :

① Introduction:

Thesis Statement: The prevailing lawlessness and sporadic environment of the world presents a horrendous image, implying thereby that it is at the brink of the third world war. The helplessness of poor countries leave them at the mercy of the superpowers, whose political will hinders the prevention of war in those regions. The functioning of international guarantors is, therefore, deemed important, or else the world will live on a borrowed time.
