

PATHWAYS TO PAKISTAN'S PROSPERITY

• Outline:

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Pakistan stands at critical crossroads in terms of its broader outlook. To ensure the prosperity in the longer run, some concrete measures need to be taken in political, economic, social, and economic spheres.

2- Pathways to Pakistan's Prosperity

2.1. Bringing human development vis-à-vis human security at par with required threshold

2.2. Ensuring the constitutional guarantees at all levels
Case in Point: Enforcement of fundamental rights; Article 25, 25-A.

2.3: Initiating the development programs to eradicate unemployment

2.4: Introducing economic reforms to control unchecked inflation at the central level

2.5. Revisiting the tax reforms to secure the designated tax-to-GDP ratio

2.6. Prioritizing the key sectors for economic growth Case in Point: Case study of South Korea, China, and Singapore

2.7. Allocating appropriate budget for core and pressed sectors Case in point: Floods of 2025 and the need of climate fund

2.8. Ensuring political stability and cohesion among political parties

2.9. Addressing the grievances of provinces Case in Point: Need of renewed NFC Awards and catering the issues of Balochistan and ^{Balochistan and} Khyber Pakhtunkhwa

2.10. ↑ Coherent relationship between the centre and federating units

Date: 1/1/20

2.21 • Integrating of Artificial Intelligence and technology into important institutions

2.22. Reforming the Judicial system and ensure expeditious justice

2.23 • Eradicating corruption and promoting meritocracy

2.24 • Reviving the local government system for appropriate devolution of power

2.25 • Taking required steps to eradicate terrorism

2.26 • Promoting gender equality and gender-safe environment at all levels

2.27 • Diversifying trade market to reduce dependence

Case in Point: Regional Projects - Iran, US, China, and Middle East

2.28 • Encouraging Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) Case in Point: India and Vietnam

3- Conclusion