

Means of Ceasing Wars

While reviewing the collapse of civilizations, the writer concluded the war as major cause of its breakdown. War captures the soul of its addict, from which escape is impossible until its exhibition. In beginning of civilizations, the war, destruction were overtaken by gains of war. In those time, states would go into war without any fear of punishment. War does not reveal its evilness until society begins its economic and political power. When society becomes capable of military advancement, war starts to reveal its deadliest face leading to massive destructions. In earlier times, when this critical relations between war and civilizations are recognized; crucial steps were taken to stop wars timely. Individuals can opt two alternative actions, one as private citizen other as citizen of state. As private citizen, individuals can refuse to involve in war by any mean. As state citizen, governments should develop join action pact against any aggression.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Experiences have shown that state level approach is much more effective.