

Delayed Marriages: Causes and consequences.

Outline:

1- Introduction:

i- Thesis statement:

Among many issues of the contemporary times, delayed marriages is one of the highest concerned which is caused by poverty, unwanted societal norms, insecure future, and high expectations which ultimately results in psychological issues rise in adultery and promotion of westernization among youth.

2- What is meant by delayed marriage:

3- Causes of Delayed marriages:

a- Poverty:

i- Unemployment:

ii- High Inflation:

iii- Low income:

b- Unwanted societal Norms:

i- Useless Mores:

ii- Unjustified rules implemented by society:

iii- UnIslamic mindsets:

c- Invisible Future/Insecure Future:

i- Hopes for stability:

ii- Expectations of a brighter future:

iii- Poor planning regarding future:

d- Expectations of a standard person and place:

i- Selection of an ideal partner:

ii- Expecting more from others rather than oneself

4- Consequences of Delayed Marriages:

a- Rise in Psychological disorders:

- i- Tension and pressure among youth:
- ii- Rise of other diseases:
- iii- Resultantly, a shortage of life:

b- Shortage in the age of marriage:

- i- Overaging of Youth:
- ii- Future problems regarding children:
- iii- Childlessness.

c- Rise in Adultery:

- i- Screen time of pornography:
- ii- Establishments of Red Light areas:
- iii- Rise of child rapers:

d- Promotion of Westernization of culture:

- i- Spread of Gay's and Lesbian's sex:
- ii- Divergence from Islam:

5- Conclusion:

~~~~~