To discover our hidden flaws, it is important to see what our enemies say to us. Our friend always compliment us or Agreed with us because of their heart first, they do not consider our fault as fault as they hold us so dear then, they hide them with the thought of hurting. On the contrary, our enemies identify our hidden flaws from each dimensions, either enemies can make it a mountain. But there is some originalities in that. friend always grow virtues of friend & enemies always grows faults of us. Therefore, we should be kind to our enemies because they inform us for our faults. In this context, an enemies is prove Better than friends.
