Works and Contribution of Nizar Hassan

Nazar Hassan is the prominent Palestinian documentary filmmaker.

He studied at Haifa University and after graduating worked in TV and Cinema.

In 1994, he produced first documentary "Independence" on Palestinian's. In this documentary of "Independence" he highlighted the absurdity by calling independence a theft of someone's homeland.

Moreover, his second latest documentary, "My Grandfather's Path" is a long but excellent narrative about the Palestinian's struggle and encroachment of Israel on Palestinian's rights. This film is a beautiful reminder ideas and aspirations of the Palestinian's. This film has been broadcast in a shorter version on Al-
