

Essay:- Rich in politicians, we desperately need statesman.

Thesis Statement:- A good leader plays an important role in a nation's growth. We need a statesman leader in political, economic and social spheres. Although leadership faces challenges in maintaining good governance and security. However, certain measures are required to address these challenges.

Avoid 1st person pronoun

Understand the difference between statesmen and politicians and then shape your arguments accordingly. Need for statesman in an era of chaos at the national and international level

Outline:

- I. Introduction
- II. Understanding the concept of politician - An Overview.
- III. Why we need a statesman in an era of chaos at the national and international level.
 - A. A statesman leader ensures the accountability.
 - B. Leader preserves the promises.
 - C. A good leader preserves the dynastic politics among politician.
 - D. Leader invests in education for economic growth.
 - E. Good politician facilitates employment opportunities among youth.
 - F. Statesman leader provides subsidies/relief to poor people in health policies.
 - G. Leader helps people in disaster management situation.
- IV. Some challenges faced by leaders to maintain good governance.
 - A. Politicians misuse of power, which weakens the enforcement of laws.
 - B. There is a lack of transparency in governance.
 - C. Most of the corrupt people exist among politicians.

V. Some suggested measures to address challenges

- A. Leaders promote awareness about political system.
- B. A good politician ensures legal enforcement in political system.

VI. Conclusion.