

Test 01

Topic: Delayed Marriages: Causes and Consequences

Not a formal outline

Outline

Convey your ideas in a well articulated manner

Make a comprehensive outline

Focus on your articulation and tenses

Shape your ideas into arguments properly

Maintain the coherence in your

outline

1. Introduction Paragraph

Thesis Topic

Background

Thesis: Delayed marriages can be seen as the result of various factors such as economy, education and career, gender roles, social norms, and some psychological factors. This not only have impacts on person's physical and mental health but also have impacts on economy, social structure, and have cultural and moral consequences.

2. Causes

2.1 Economic causes

a. Jobs

b. Inflation

~~2.2~~

2.2 Education and career priorities

a. girl's education after marriage

b. time demanding jobs.

2.3. Gender roles

- a. concept of home roles
- b. children responsibility

2.4. Social Norms

- a. Dowry
- b. financial stability of men.

2.5. Psychological causes

- a. fear of commitment
- b. personal freedom

3. Consequences

3.1. Physical health

- a. Reproductive health
- b. Disorders in newborns

3.2. Psychological consequences

- a. depression, loneliness
- b. lack of emotional support

3.3. Social consequences

- a. Weakening of family structure
- b. Social alienation

3.4. Economic consequences

- a. Reduce labour force
- b. Health care cost increases

3.5. Moral and cultural consequences

- a. Premarital relations
- b. Erosion of traditional values

4. Lay forward

4-1 Policy Reforms

4-2 Social and cultural reforms

4-3 Education and psychological awareness.

5. Conclusion.