

Increasing use of Drugs in the Modern Age

Outline:

①

Introduction;

Brief overview of how drug use has become a major problem in the modern world.

② Historical Background Of Drug use and Control.

Early use of natural drug for medicine and rituals; Rise of Synthetic drugs Global efforts to control narcotics.

③ Main Causes

Psychological Stress, Loneliness, peer pressure and easy access to drugs

④ Role Of Media

Social media and entertainment platforms promoting a careless attitude toward drug use.

⑤ Major Consequences

Health destruction, Family Break down, moral decline and rise in crime.

⑥ Youth and Education

Students most effected, losing focus motivation and future prospects.

⑦ Role Of Religion and Society

Islamic teachings, faintly guidance and Community Support.

⑧ Conclusion.

A united effort by individuals families can help overcome this modern curse.

Thesis Statement:

The growing use of drugs in the modern age come from rising stress, loneliness and the loss of moral values. It is not only harming individual life but also weakening the social and moral strength of the entire communities.

Introductory Paragraph

In today's rapidly changing world, the increasing use of drugs has become one of the most alarming social and moral issues confronting humanity. What once started as the limited use of certain substance for medical and scientific purposes has now turned into a widespread habit destroying millions of lives across the globe.

the modern lifestyle filled with pressure, competition, unemployment and emotional struggles, has made people more ~~more~~ vulnerable to addiction.

many individuals especially the youth fall into this trap while seeking relief from mental stress, loneliness or a sense of failure. In addition the easy availability of narcotics, the growing influence of peer pressure and the role of media and entertainment industries in portraying drug use as a modern fashionable have further worsened the situation. As a result societies are facing a rise in crime, the collapse of family structures, the decline of education, and a severe moral breakdown. the silent epidemic is not just ~~destroying~~ individual But also ~~also~~ weakening nations by ~~damaging~~ damaging their social and ~~economic~~ economic strength.

Improve your outline

Mention major causes

Give more arguments in this regard

Give recommendations

Grammatical mistakes

Start your introduction with attention grabber