

Pak - US relations

The relations between Pakistan and America have always ~~been~~ faced ups and down. In 1980s, America supported Pakistan during Cold war, Afghan Jihad and on war on terror. However, when geopolitically goals were achieved, then Americans showed hostile attitude toward Pakistan.

Recently, <sup>P</sup>prime <sup>M</sup>minister Shabaz Sharif and army chief ~~have~~ met USA leader Donald Trump in white house, and details of meeting are sketchy. Some Pakistani analysts <sup>are of the opinion</sup> ~~have opinion~~ that Pakistan would discuss Palestine issue, counter terrorism and investment issues. Besides, both leaders have showed great attribution toward each other on media, USA leader Trump called Shabaz Sharif "a great leader, as well as pm called him courageous, and man of peace. In writer's views, Trump is not a peace maker, he argues that Trump attached Iran in June 2025, as well as he is supplying weapons to Israel to exacerbate genocide in Gaza.

Moreover, foreign policy priorities of Islamabad and Washington have divergence in several areas like on China, Iran and Palestine issue

So this is a litmus for Pakistan to how to balance relations between two global powers.

"Textile sector collapsing in Pakistan"

Textiles sector is losing exports, due to high tariffs, and rising cost. Gul Ahmad textile mills have sent a report to the stock exchange, which has revealed that due to high cost, ~~and~~ high duties on raw material and high competition in global and continuous ~~loss~~ operational loss. They are closing export segment. Moreover frequently changes in policies further barricade the industrial growth. Despite, focusing on industrial growth, government expects on inflows from overseas Pakistanis to hit a record 43 B $ this year. Such inflows can plug deficit but cannot build factories.

Title: Tussle between Pakistan and India

Pakistan has won war against India in May 2025, and diplomatic success of Pakistan further exacerbates the frustration of India. Therefore, Indian officials are threatening Pakistan, like the Indian army chief said his country would not show restraint, as well as air chief said his forces have shot down many ~~at~~ Pakistani jets. Similarly, Indian foreign minister during speech in United Nation

General assembly he called the neighbour country is a colony of global terrorism.
However, some analysts believe that the hostile attitude of India toward Pakistan serves its domestic agenda. Indian ruling party wants to grab votes in upcoming election in Bihar.
Moreover, when Indian government ~~will~~ will realize that it cannot isolate Pakistan, then there will be chance for peace, but at that time Pakistan must be prepared for any aggression.
