

Can religion be a primary driver of Extremism?

Outlines.

1. Introduction

2. Analysing the historical roots of extremism.

3. Religion can not be a primary driver of extremism

4. Non-religious factors of extremism.

3.1. Racism as a driver of extremism.

Case in study: Christchurch mosques attack on March 15, 2019 in New Zealand.

3.2. Extreme Right-wing views

Case in study: Violent extremist attacks of Anders Breivik on July 22, 2011 in Norway.

plz keep yourself in Norway.

3.3. Emotional and psychological behavior of individual or group can contribute to Extremism.

3.4. Socio-economic factors as a drivers of extremism.

3.4.1. Poverty

3.4.2. Lack of Education

3.4.3. Economic disparity

3.5. Political instability and weak governance as a driver of extremism.

Case studies: Asia, Middle East and Africa

11

u have categorically denied the topic kindly try to write about the topic also

3.6. Sense of identity crisis leads to extremism.

Case in study: The establishment of United Irish Republic by the Irish Republican Army.

3.7. Media and propaganda as a drivers of extremism.

Case in study: Mashal Khan case of Abdul Wali Khan University in April, 2017.

5. Way forward to Counter-violent-extremism.

6. Conclusion

