

NAME : NABIHA KHAN

BATCH : 15B-0883

COURSE : ENGLISH ESSAY

-: EXAM ASSESSMENT # 01 :-

Topic: Increasing Use of Drugs in Modern Age

: Outline :

I: Introduction

1.1: Hook

1.2: Basic Information on Drug Abuse

1.3: Thesis Statement

"The increasing use of drugs in the modern age is a complex issue that requires a multifaceted approach, incorporating education, awareness, and community support, to address the underlying social, economic, and psychological factors driving substance abuse, and promote a healthier, more supportive environment for individuals."

II: Increasing use of Drugs in Modern Age

2.1: Social Media Influence

2.1.1: Social media's role in glamorizing substance use

2.1.2: Online platforms failing to regulate drug related content.

2.2: Peer pressure and Social Circle

2.2.1: Pressure of peer groups upon an individual's behavior.

2.2.2: Normalization of the use of substance in the social circle

2.3: Economic and Financial Factors

2.3.1: Poverty and economic instability as contributing factors.

2.3.2: Role of unemployment and financial stress.

2.4: Prescription and Misuse of Medication.

2.4.1: Chronic illness causing to seek a temporary escape from life

2.4.2: Overprescription and misuse of medication.

2.5: Availability and Accessibility to the use of substance

2.5.1: Easy access to drugs through various channels.

2.5.2: Role of dark web and online marketplace.

2.6: Lack of Parental Supervision

2.6.1: Impact of busy lifestyle on parental involvement

2.6.2: Importance of parental guidance in preventing substance use.

2.7: Lack of Awareness and Education

2.7.1: Limited knowledge about the risk of drug abuse

2.7.2: Importance of education and awareness programs.

III: Role of Technology in Recovery - Spreading Awareness and Creating an Impactful Environment.

3.1: Online resources and support groups for recovery.

3.2: Establishing rehabilitation centers to mitigate drug abuse.

3.3: Implementation of new policies.

IV. Conclusion

Date: _____

Day: _____

~~The Essay - Increasing Use of Drugs~~ in the Modern Age

"The quest for a temporary escape often leads to a permanent cage"

This sobering aphorism captures the silent tragedy unfolding across the globe, as the increasing use of drug abuse in the modern age reaches epidemic proportions. Despite unprecedented progress in science, medicine and global connectivity, contemporary society is marked by escalating, pervasive pressures - from the constant performance anxiety fueled by digital platforms to the playable stress of deep economic instability and widening social gaps. This modern confluence of factors drives countless individuals seeking solace or a moment of relief from chronic conditions or emotional despair down the dangerous path of substance abuse. What may begin as a simple coping mechanism quickly morphs into a devastating dependency that fractures lives, families or communities. This issue is far more complex than simple moral failure; it is a systematic public health crisis rooted deeply in the modern social fabric, demanding immediate, coordinated actions. This increasing use of drugs in the modern age is a complex issue that requires a multifaceted approach, incorporating education, awareness, and community support, to address the underlying social, economic and psychological factors driving substance abuse, to promote a healthier, more supportive environment for individuals.

Date: _____

Day: _____