The Essay

'Marriage delayed is not marriage denied. It is of a journey towards readiness than reluctance' (General reflective quote). Marriage is delayed in a hope to succeed in life and start the journey with happiness and joy. The reason for the delay is to get equipped with all the essential tools to provide abundance to their partner.

To encounter the challenges of the struggle and succeed in the process. This journey is often assumed in the modern perspective to be fulfilled in order to start a family.

This concept leads to the idea that readiness is the important factor in getting married and starting a family, where this delay has not to be assumed as reluctance. The delay in marriages is having some causes and consequences.
